

Consent to Publish

For the mutual benefit and protection of Authors and Publishers it is necessary that Authors provide formal written Consent to Publish before publication of the Work. The signed Consent ensures that the Publisher has the Author's permission to publish the relevant Contribution. The Publisher hereby requests the Author to complete and return this form promptly so as to ensure the proper conduct of business.

The name of the Contribution:

Author(s):

Title of Journal: Dbl Review

Editor: Deafblind International

The Author(s) grants the non-exclusive publication rights to Deafblind International and he/she warrants that his/her contribution including images attached is original and that he/she has full power to make this grant. The Author guarantees that the Contribution to the Work has not been previously published elsewhere. The Author declares that any person named as co-author of the contribution is aware of the fact and has agreed to being so named.

The Author gives permission to collect the following data for Dbl Review: name, place of work, academic degree, email, articles with images attached. This information can be published in all languages, in whole or in part, in digital form and in any other form including, without limitation, mechanical, electronic and visual reproduction, electronic storage and retrieval systems, including internet and intranet delivery and all other forms of electronic publication.

The publisher confirms that the following rights are reserved to the Author: a) The right after publication to take over the Contribution free of charge, in whole or in part, in a compilation of own works in print, such as a collection of own articles and/or lectures. b) The right after publication to quote the Contribution and/or build on the content of the Contribution, on condition that this does not constitute a reproduction of the Contribution. c) The right to reproduce the Contribution in a limited number of copies for the sole purpose of private practice.
